

Bench - Passion Flower

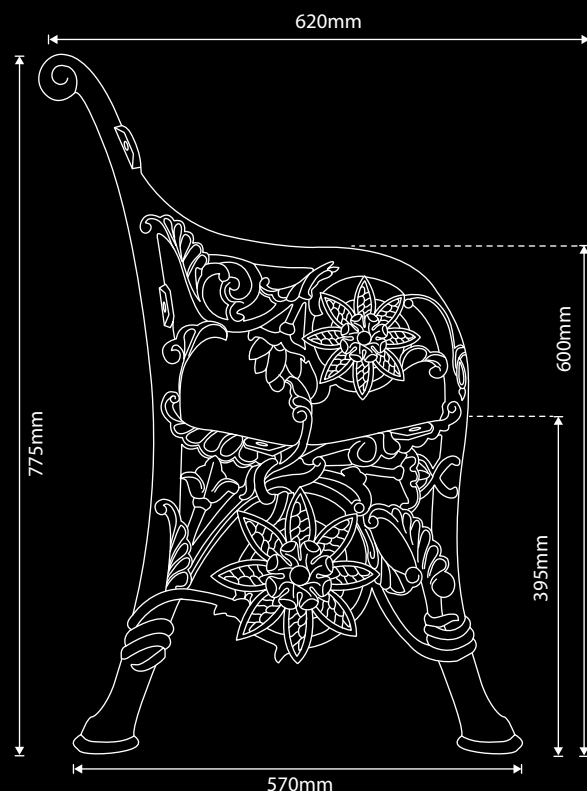

Beautiful stylised buds, tendrils and the distinctive petals are contained within the flowing curves of the cast iron supports. An exceptional example of the art of the decorative output of the Victorian foundries, from the period where design aesthetics were replacing straightforward representation.

Despite the aesthetic appeal of the castings, the supports are robust and are paired with substantial shaped and chamfered hardwood timbers, offering distinctive and attractive seating suitable for public spaces.

Dimensions

Height: 775mm Floor to Armrest: 600mm
Width: 620mm Floor to Seating: 395mm
Base: 570mm

LOST ART
HISTORIC LANDSCAPE FURNISHING

Lost Art Limited, 1 Yewdale Crescent, Wigan, Lancashire, WN1 2HP, U.K.
T 01257 464601 E office@lost-art.co.uk W www.lost-art.co.uk